

Pre ICCAS Activities OFF CAMPUS

Title	Short teaser	Content	Timing	Catering	Transport	Price Euro	Activity
Tracing the Gastronomical roots of Danish food heritages and authenticity	Enjoy a unique tour along the golden coast of Zealand and get insight in examples of Danish food heritage & authenticity	Program: Check-in: 9.00 AAU campus. Stop 1: Visit to Michelin star restaurant Den Røde Cottage (the Red Cottage). Presentation of Danish Gastronomy of today by chef Anita Klemensen – first women in Denmark to receive a Michelin star. Stop 2; Visit at Art Museum Louisiana for a presentation and discussion on art and food moderated by Katja Serup Clausen. We end the tour with a stroll along the coast of Øresund and enjoy the beautiful views to Sweden – just across the sound. Lunch will be served. Stop 3; Visit to Rungstedlund – home of Danish author Karen Blixen. Presentations in the context of best selling novel Babettes Feast and Blixen in gastronomical context moderated by Dr. Anna Marie Fisker Check-out 16:00 at AAU campus.	Full Day. 9:00 -16:00	Lunch	Bus	125	TOUR 1
Copenhagen Foodscapes – exploring the alternative CPH foodscene	Explore the bustling alternative CPH foodscene on the well-known Copenhagen CityBike.	Program: Check-in: 9:00 AAU campus. We get on the bike and pass by one of CPH’s busy food streets at Værnedamsvej. Next stop is to see how young people at school acquire food, growing and gardening skills in Copenhagen school garden. At the final stop we will meet young aquaponics entrepreneur Lasse Carlsen and his colleagues has developed the Green & Blue Aquaponics food place at Valhallagade – part of CPH’s latin quarter. Before biking back to campus we will enjoy a food truck kind of lunch in the facility. Check Out: 1245 AAU campus	Morning ½ day. 9:00 – 12:45	Lunch	City Bike	75	TOUR 2
Innovation for future foodscapes – entrepreneurship and education	Check out some of the Copenhagen food hot spots where entrepreneurship and education goes hand in hand.	Program: Check-in: 13:00 AAU campus. Stop 1 is at Rebel Food where you will hear about the street food revolution. Stop 2: Meet Æblerov cider brewery people and taste the grand cru cider known from the Noma menu. At the last stop Visit to Hotel- & Restaurant School you will meet teachers and hear about how they train the food entrepreneurs of the future. Check-out 16:00 AAU campus	Afternoon ½ day	Coffee & snacks	City Bike	50	TOUR 3